Actress Kethelyn Oliveira

about me

Kethelyn Oliveira is a Brazilian actress and writer working between Brazil and Dubai. Officially registered as a professional actress in Brazil (DRT 0036280/PR - Ministry of Labor, 2025), she has built an international career across film and theatre, known for emotionally precise and psychologically layered performances. She won Best Actress at the Pupila Film Festival (2025) for Everyone Has Flaws, You Just Happen to Know Mine, a project she also co-wrote, and at the Las Vegas IQFAF (2024) for Situationship. She was also recognized at the DXB Theater Awards for her leading role in Torn and received a Best Actress nomination at the Dubai City Festival for the short movie DND. Her work spans short films, independent features, and stage productions presented at venues including Emirates Literature Festival, The Fridge Dubai, and Junction Dubai. She completed the Filmmaker Program at SAE Institute Dubai, where she wrote and directed the short film Take 6 Cards. Having traveled to over seventy countries during nearly eight years with Emirates Airlines, Kethelyn brings a global perspective and strong cultural sensitivity to her work. Fluent in Portuguese, Spanish and English, she is drawn to character-driven stories that explore vulnerability, moral complexity, and transformation.
